* Call to Worship (adapted from I John 4)

Beloved, let us love one another, for love is from God.

In this is love: not that we loved God, but that God loved us.

If we love one another, God lives in us, and God’s love is perfected in us.

We love because God first loved us.

Let us worship God.

PRAYER FOR RECONCILIATION

Wise and loving God, we come to you this Fathers’ Day as your beloved children, with praise and thanksgiving, but mindful that we fall short of your hopes for us. We have not always done our utmost to make a dwelling place for your love, in your house or our own. We are sorry for missed opportunities to listen and care for one another, and in so doing, to find your peace. Remind us of the joy we feel at the growth of another. Refresh us with the simple pleasures of life. Renew us with the boundless love and energy of your Holy Spirit. Help us to be more like Jesus, at home, at work, at worship, and at prayer, for we ask all these things in his strong name...

(Silent Prayer)

Assurance of God’s Grace

...Friends, believe the good news of the Gospel:

In Jesus Christ we are forgiven.

* Gloria (sing once in unison, twice in a round)

from Taizé Hymnal

(a) Glory to God, glory to God, (b) glory to God in the highest;
glory to God, glory to God; alleluia, alleluia.

WITH THE CHILDREN

SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM:

All assemble at the font.

Presentation An elder, representing the session, presents those who have been received into membership.

On behalf of the session and in celebration of my own baptism, I present Wayne and Danielle Rampone, who today bring Carter Raymond Rampone to receive the Sacrament of Baptism.

Thanksgiving for Baptism the minister continues...

...The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise....

Profession of Faith

The Renunciations, together with the Apostles' Creed, are our inheritance from the earliest baptismal rites of the church. The Renunciations are spoken by persons being baptized, or by parents and sponsors on behalf of infants being baptized; who will then, when they are older, "confirm" the vows made on their behalf at baptism.

Renunciations

...Trusting in the gracious mercy of God, do you renounce all evil, and all powers in the world that defy God's righteousness and love?

I renounce them.

Do you renounce the ways of sin, which separate you from the love of God?

I renounce them.

Do you turn to Jesus Christ and accept him as your Lord and Savior?

I do.

Will you be Christ's faithful disciple, obeying his Word and showing his love, to your life's end?

I will, with God's help.

The Apostles' Creed (Hymnal p. 35) All affirm the faith in the words of the ancient baptismal Creed

Baptism

Hymn (insert) Lord Jesus Christ, Our Lord Most Dear

VOM HIMMEL HOCH

The elder leads the congregation in the following prayer:

Let us pray.

Faithful God, you work in us and for us, even when we do not know it. We thank you for welcoming Carter Raymond Rampone into your family of faith. By the power of your Spirit, nourish them in faith and love. Strengthen in us all the covenant you made in our baptism, that we may serve you with joy, to the glory of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Welcome

...The peace of Christ be with you.

And also with you.

(Children should proceed to their church school class.)
